

GLADYS O. OYEWOLE-MAKELE (nee OWOEYE)

Gladys Oyewole -Makele is the Founder & CEO, GODMIJT Education Consultants, an international consultancy firm specializing in the establishment and management of Universities and providing management skills for Women, and services for World Conferences on Gifted & Talented Education for Children. Prior to starting GODMIJT Education Consultants, Gladys held various positions at the University of Lagos, Nigeria, including: Executive Secretary, Endowment Unit; Director of Academic Planning; Senior Assistant Registrar; and Assistant Registrar, respectively. Other professional positions in academia include Chemistry Teacher, Lagos State and Oyo State Teaching Services Commissions, Nigeria.

Gladys has served as the Past President & Member of Soroptimist- International, Lagos Nigeria; President of Hubert Humphrey Alumni Association, Nigeria, 2005-2013; Member, Board of Osun State, Nigeria; Poverty Reduction Agency, 2005-2007; Member, Nigerian American Chamber of Commerce (NACC); Member, AGOA CSO Network. As an avid member of the AGOA CSO Network since 2017, Gladys is advocate of US –Africa trade and vigorously promotes AGOA and trade opportunities, especially among Nigerian women owned SMEs.

She holds an Honorary Doctor (Ph.D.) of Higher Educational Management Degree, Lead City University, Ibadan, Nigeria, December 2015 and a Master of Educational Administration (M.Ed.) University of Lagos, Nigeria, December 1984. Gladys is the recipient of numerous Fellowships, including: Templeton International Fellow in Gifted & Talented Education: University of Iowa, USA, May 2008; Fellow, Nigerian Institute of Management, Nigeria, December 2002; Fellow, Institute of Management Consultants, Nigeria, July 1999; Fellow, Salzburg Seminar on Youth Education, Salzburg, Austria; Fellow, Hubert H, Humphrey Fellowship Program, Boston University, Boston, USA, 1994- 1995; Fellow, Association of Commonwealth Universities, University of Manchester, England, December 1986.