

Rose Muchanga Bauma

Rose Muchanga Bauma is the President of the Synergy of Women in Civil Society (SYES), DRC SYES is a women's rights organization that works for the promotion of specific women's rights. Rose is also head of the Partnership and Leadership Department of National and International NGOs within the National Human Rights Commission (CNDH) in DRC. We believe in the commitment of women to the development of our country because nothing positive and sustainable can be done without the direct or indirect involvement of women.

Our areas of focus are:

- Promotion of human and specific women's rights
- Democracy, peace and good governance
- Women's political participation
- Women's Empowerment and Entrepreneurship
- Reproductive Health and Nutrition
- Environment, Agriculture and Livestock
