

Otunba Oluwatoyin Akomolafe

Otunba Oluwatoyin Akomolafe is the current National President of the Nigerian-American Chamber of Commerce, the foremost bilateral chamber of commerce in Nigeria. Under his leadership which he has occupied since 2018, Otunba Akomolafe has consistently focused on re-branding and revitalizing the image of the Chamber, balancing the American and Nigerian aspects of the organization as well as modernizing its communication strategy.

He obtained his first degree in Agricultural Economics from the University of Ibadan and on completion went straight into the business of import and export. He was later head hunted by the West Africa Portland Cement Company (WAPCO) in 1979 where he rose to the position of Western Regional Area Manager when he left in 1988. While under the employment of WAPCO, he never gave up on setting up his business.

From 1989 he established Index Brook Limited with a vision to building it up into an integrated Oil and Gas company. Over the years, Index Brook Limited has grown to become the most widely recognized and successful business consultancy service providers in the oil and gas industry in Nigeria, contributing to the establishment and the rapid growth in the market shares of blue chip companies such as Globestar, Acergy, Hyundai Heavy Industries, Ocean Energy, Devon Oil, Anardako, Subsea 7, etc.

He is an active member of the Christian Friends Society, Arch Bishop Vining Memorial Church, Ikeja, Lagos; the Ikoyi Club; The Metropolitan Club; The Regents Park Club, London; The West Lake Country Club, Houston, Texas amongst other societies, social clubs, professional associations and non-profit organizations.